

Enabling Anti-Spam Questions

Fighting spammers is one of the tougher jobs of a website owner or administrator. One tool we provide, and that you should use if not using reCaptcha, is the Anti-Spam Questions with Images. You can google around for tips on making some but many site owners use their niche for ideas for the questions. This tutorial will show you how to enable and add anti-spam questions.

- Click Settings and select Anti-SPAM Questions

- On the right, you'll see any questions you've already set up and to the right of that, you will see the input area to add more questions.
1. Center area is where your current questions will appear.
 2. If you want an image with this, click to upload one from your computer.
 3. Add your question here.
 4. Add your answers. You might want to put a few variations of the answer such as with caps/without caps as some users might use caps and some might not.
 5. Click the + to add more answers.
 6. Click Add Question when done.
 7. The "x" to the right of the answers is to delete that answer if needed.

A screenshot of the 'Anti-SPAM Questions' management interface. It features a table with columns for 'IMAGE', 'QUESTION', and 'ANSWERS'. A yellow circle with the number '1' is placed over the table area. To the right of the table is a 'Add New Question' form. The form has three sections: 'Image:' with a 'Choose File' button and the text 'antispamexcf.'; 'Question:' with a text input field containing 'Enter the numbers and w'; and 'Answers:' with a list of answers. One answer, '147 Blue', is highlighted in yellow and has a yellow circle with the number '4' next to it. Below it is another input field with '147Blue' and a yellow circle with the number '5' next to it. At the bottom of the form is a red 'Add Question' button with a yellow circle with the number '6' next to it. A yellow circle with the number '3' is next to the 'Question:' input field. A yellow circle with the number '2' is next to the 'Choose File' button. A yellow circle with the number '1' is next to the 'Add More Answers' button.
